

Mamad

Mamad Atarod Moghadasi

Mamad is a highly experienced finance professional and leader with over 15 years of expertise in IT, accounting, financial planning, and project management. He has a proven track record in leading and developing teams, implementing process improvements, and ensuring accurate financial reporting. He worked for several multinational companies both in technical and in leadership positions in Hungary and in Iran. Additionally, he has been a university lecturer since 2013, teaching computer and IT courses, demonstrating his strong teaching and mentoring skills.